

Nomination Guidelines & Form for

NJEA Friend of ESP Award 2023

I hereby nominate the following person to receive the NJEA Friend of ESP Award to be presented at the 2023 NJEA ESP Conference.

The NJEA Friend of ESP Award can be bestowed upon any person or organization whose leadership, acts, dedication, commitment, and support on the statewide level have proven that person or organization to be a true friend of and advocate for ESP and their contributions to public education and students. An individual recipient need not be an American citizen, but he or she should reflect the philosophy and principles of NJEA. Individual nominees may be public or private citizens, and selection of finalists will be made regardless of age, sex, race, color, or creed. If any individual nominee is eligible for active NJEA membership, such membership is a requirement.
